

We've uncorked a fine wineries product

TRAVELERS CANADA | INDUSTRYEDGE® FOR WINERIES

There is much more to making fine wine than growing grapes. Viticulture, equipment management, staffing, marketing and special events are all integral components of a sophisticated operation. And all require sufficient insurance coverage.

This is why Travelers Canada has designed an insurance product to meet the distinct needs of commercial wineries. IndustryEdge® for Wineries is a natural extension of our expertise in providing comprehensive protection for the complex exposures confronting the food industry.

Our broad and flexible winery product brings together all the critical coverages needed most by wineries. IndustryEdge® for Wineries represents a superior alternative to purchasing a generic insurance product loaded with endorsements.

Travelers Canada. Providing middle-market industries with a competitive edge.
